A. Montgomery, an evangelist of art, known as the "Farmer Artist" is in the city. He is accompanied by his wife. Mr. Bloomington's home is in Bloomington, Illinois, and he feels amply repaid for visiting the fishing industry of the Columbia river.

ONLY INTERNAL DISSENSION

New Haven, Conn., August 14.—Howard B. Ives, president of the Kasanan Bay Mining Company, has left for Seattle. He said the act of placing the company in receiver's hands was needless and was due to internal dissensions. The object of his trip, he said, was to try to have the receivership removed. He claims that all the bills outstanding against the company amount to $8,448, due to western dealers.

MILES AND PARTY IN UTAH.

Salt Lake, August 14.—Lieutenant-General Nelson A. Miles, retired, accompanied by a party of seven, arrived from the east shortly before 2 o'clock this morning. He was met at the Rio Grande depot by a delegation of officers from Fort Douglas and driven directly to the post where he will be entertained today.

In an interview with a Herald reporter General Miles declared he was not a candidate for commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., and that he would support the nomination of General John C. Black of Illinois for that honor.

After a brief rest here the party will proceed to San Francisco to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R.
